

August 18, 2022

Caldwell Civic Center

9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

FREE ADMISSION & LUNCH PROVIDED

Sarah, Robby and Leah will discuss how water legislation affects Post Oak Savannah GCD (POSGCD) and management of our aquifers, as well as how POSGCD interacts with other entities in the legislative process. You won't want to miss this program or this year's mix of expert presentations on all areas of groundwater management! To view the draft agenda of this year's Groundwater Summit go to: www.posgcd.org/groundwater-summit

Sarah Kirkle

Sarah Kirkle is the Director of Policy and Legislative Affairs with Texas Water Conservation Association. Sarah is the director of policy and planning and focused on education, infrastructure, health, government performance, and natural resources policy with Texas 2036. Sarah spent 13 years at the Sunset Advisory Commission whose purpose is to make government work smaller and smarter.

Robby Cook

Robert L. "Robby" Cook, III served in Texas House of Representatives for five successive terms. Robby served on the National Conference of State Legislators and American Legislative Exchange Council. He served on House Natural Resources, Land and Resources Management, and Agriculture and Livestock committees. Robby currently is a partner in the government affairs consulting firm Eichler & Cook, LLC.

Leah Martinsson

Leah is the Executive Director of the Texas Alliance of Groundwater Districts. Leah has more than 15 years experience practicing in water rights law. Leah obtained her undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin and her law degree from the University of Colorado-Boulder.

Please RSVP your attendance to the Burleson County Extension Office or our office by August 9th

Burleson County Office

POSGCD Office

(979) 567-2308

(512) 455-9900